

Becoming a Manager

Hands-on course of 3 days - 21h

Ref.: MOP - Price 2025: 2 030 (excl. taxes)

This course enables first time managers to understand what management means, and provides the necessary basic knowledge, skills and techniques. This programme develops a manager's ability to recognise and cater successfully for a variety of staff needs, so that the potential of each individual is realised. By the end of the course participants will be able to:

- assess their approach to management and identify key development areas
- recognise different management styles, understand how they affect others,
- develop and motivate a winning team
- communicate more effectively
- handle sensitive and difficult situations appropriately
- apply proven methods for enhancing individual performance.

This course, which relies on realistic scenarios and interactions between practices, makes it possible to acquire managerial techniques that can be used directly in the real world.
